

The Elizabeth Collective: Partnership Guide

A home for teachers, healers, and practitioners to share their gifts.

At The Elizabeth Collective, we believe in community over competition. Our shared studio membership program makes it simple and affordable to hold space for your clients, classes, and creative offerings — while supporting the shared energy of our collective.

Memberships replace traditional hourly rentals with a flexible monthly plan that offers consistency, ease, and connection.

Choose the Path That's Right for You

| Flexible Rental                       | Collective Member                        |
|---------------------------------------|------------------------------------------|
| Rent space as needed                  | Grow your practice with us               |
| No monthly commitment                 | Customized revenue-share model           |
| Online scheduling & flexible booking  | Priority scheduling                      |
| Occasional or seasonal use            | Designed for long-term growth            |
| Great way to experience The Elizabeth | Marketing, referrals & community support |

Which Option Fits You?

| Flexible Rental            | Collective Member           |
|----------------------------|-----------------------------|
| New practitioners          | Established practitioners   |
| Occasional client sessions | Growing wellness businesses |
| Workshops & special events | Regular client schedules    |
| Visiting practitioners     | Collaborative professionals |
